PRIDE MONTH 2021

Every June, the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual communities recognize Pride Month in memory of the victims of the Stonewall riots, which occurred at the end of June 1969. This annual celebration hails LGBTQ+ civil rights victories, commemorates sacrifices made by LGBTQ+ members and their allies, and acknowledges the distances yet ahead for global equality for all persons under law. Retailers and readers of all stripes may recognize Pride Month for the proliferation of Pride parades across the globe, which invite all attendees to come as they are and to feel a joyful sense of belonging. It is in this same spirit of welcoming togetherness that PREVIEWS is proud to highlight a wide array of comics stories both about and from our siblings in the LGBTQ+ communities. Look for the Pride Month icon throughout this issue and turn to Page 214 for our list of suggested reading titles!

BLACK WHITE RED

I'LL TAKE TWO SHOTS AND A COLD BEVERAGE, PLEASE!

It's the June issue of PREVIEWS. Summertime is here, and things are starting to look good for a lot of folks out there. More and more places are "opening up" now, thanks to the efforts of the health officials getting vaccines into the arms of willing Americans. I got my two doses of the Pfizer vaccine in April/May, and aside from some discomfort for a day or so in my arm at the injection spot, I suffered no side-effects or phantom illnesses that some have reported. So, I've got that going for me, which is nice.

A few of the comic shops I frequent have reported incredible sales levels, making comments like "I can't keep [XYZ] in stock, I keep selling out!" or "I'm selling everything — it's crazy!" Sources of entertainment, especially stuff like comics, books, music and movies have always been somewhat "disaster-proof", because what are you going to do if you're stuck at home and can only go out for short excursions to the comic shop, say? Stay at home and read comics, watch movies, or play games! It's a tribute to our industry that so many have weathered the 'storm' of COVID-19 and the pandemic around it and are on the brink of hitting the daylight on the other end of the proverbial tunnel.

I know there's a lot of folks who are hesitant to get the vaccine for any number of reasons. But if we're going to reach the fabled "Herd Immunity" that everyone in a lab coat keeps talking about, we're all going to have to work together as a nation, put aside our many differences and make the time to go out and get vaccinated. It's the only way we're going to beat this thing. The longer we wait to get as many people vaccinated as we can, the more chances there are that we suffer yet another wave of infections or, worse yet, allow a mutant strain of the COVID to take hold. And that's the stuff we DON'T want after the year we've all been through!

Enough about the COVID (it already gets enough press as it is), let's move on to this issue.

Starting on page 214, you'll find our coverage for the PRIDE MONTH celebration here in PREVIEWS. Meant to coincide with PRIDE MONTH festivities throughout the country and the world, you'll find a great selection of Comics, Graphics Novels, and Books created by and about the LGBTQ+ community. This year we have another great selection of titles that give us all a window into the LGBTQ+ community and the many experiences of the many talented writers and artists represented in these pages.

Also, if you're just checking in with us now, be sure to turn to page 29 of this issue for the complete and updated listings for this year's FREE COMIC BOOK DAY on Saturday, August 14th. I know a handful of shops celebrated their own Free Comic Book Days on the first Saturday in May (our usual date) with comics from previous years, but the only way to get the brand new comics for 2021 is to get to your favorite comic shop on Saturday, August 14th!

That's all for this month. Stay safe, get vaccinated, and get out there and enjoy your summer outside!

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

Multiple Records Smashed in April

The thriving collectibles market saw multiple huge records broken in April 2021. ComicConnect brokered the sale of Action Comics #1 (featuring Superman's debut) CGC 8.5 for $3,250,000 – setting a new record for highest price achieved for a single comic. Two copies of Batman #1 (first Joker and Catwoman) set new records, first when Heritage sold a CGC 5.0 for $360,000 in their Comics & Art Auction and second when ComicConnect sold a CGC 8.0 for $1,207,500 in Event Auction #45.

Outside of comics, Heritage sold a Super Mario Bros. WATA 9.6 A+ sealed for $660,000, making it the most ever paid for a video game, followed by Mega Man WATA 9.4 A+ sealed for $144,000 and Mike Tyson's Punch-Out!! WATA 9.6 A++ sealed for $102,000.

ComicConnect sold a Michael Jordan 1986 Rookie Card PSA 10 for $550,000, a Pokémon Charizard First Edition Shadowless PSA 10 GEM MT for $360,000 (a new record), and a rare hand-painted, rocket-firing Boba Fett action figure for $210,000 (a new record).

Spiritual Communications with Doctor Mirage

Dr. Shan Fong, aka Doctor Mirage, is one of Valiant's mystically powerful heroines. Born with the ability to see and communicate with the dead, Shan trained as a parapsychologist and paranormal expert, turning her gift into a profession.

Shan and her husband Hwen became famous paranormal investigators, starring in their own TV show. After Hwen died, Mirage and his ghost stopped occultists and a demon from breaking the barrier between their world and Deadside.

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick up these books to learn more about Maria Llovet's Indie Edge style!

- Faithless Vol. 1 TP (AUG191384)
- LOUD! OGN (NOV201173)
- Luna #1 (DEC200996)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

My name is Maria and I'm from Barcelona, Spain. I'm really passionate about telling stories and about visual narrative. My work is usually very focused on the main subjects of sex or attraction and death. My influences come deeply from alternative manga and European art, but I learn and get inspired constantly from cinema and fashion.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

Eros/Psyche (STL1709063) was my first graphic novel, originally published in 2011, and it's very dear to me as it was my first time as a complete author. 2021 is its 10th anniversary, so it's really great that this new edition — presented in full-color for the first time—is coming out precisely now!

Loud! (NOV201173) from Blackmask Comics, was a kind of an experimental project. I wanted to explore a different direction from my previous works, and to also do something more visceral. It has nearly no dialogue, and instead focuses the reader experience heavily on a visual, "cinematographic" narrative only.

Luna (DEC200996) from BOOM! Studios is my latest project, the one I'm working on right now. It usually happens to me that the project that I'm currently working is my favorite and the one I'm most passionate about!

What are you currently working on?

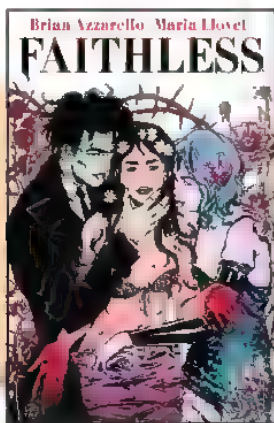

In the next few months I'll be working hard to complete Luna, and then I'll be back to my collaboration with Brian Azzarello for Faithless III, also with BOOM! Studios. After that, I'm having an inside battle between a couple of personal projects that are on a queue... I guess it's too early to decide. I'll have to wait 'til 2022 and see!

What fun titles are you reading?

Bastien Vives' A Sister GN (NOV200973) published by Ablaze. This is one of my favorite comics ever. I'm a big fan of Bastien's work, the way he tells the stories, his sensibility and the way he uses graphic narrative. He's my favorite author right now.

Junko Mizuno's Pure Trance (NOV191803) published by Last Gasp. Junko Mizuno's work is always a treat for me. Her unique personal style and imaginary are pop, cute, sexy and bizarre.

My Pretty Vampire GN (SEP181790) published by Fantagraphics Books. I love Katie Skelly's style, the way she mixes up her influences and the sense of fashion + cuteness infused into her characters.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry — PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

CELEBRATE SIXTY YEARS OF THE FANTASTIC FOUR AS JOHN ROMITA, JR. RETURNS TO MARVEL

The Fantastic Four face a grave threat across time as legendary artist John Romita, Jr. returns to Marvel Comics and joins forces with writer Dan Slott to celebrate sixty years of Marvel's First Family in August's Fantastic Four #35!

The bloodline of the time-traveling Kang has unleashed an ambitious attack on the Fantastic Four in the past, present, and future. Reed, Sue, Johnny, and Ben face attacks from Rama Tut, the Scarlet Centurion, Kang the Conqueror, and Scion. This onslaught could rewrite the entire history of the Fantastic Four — or write them out of existence altogether! Will the Fantastic Four defeat their time-sensitive foes, or will this be... is this... was this... their final hour?

August's Fantastic Four #35 marks sixty years since the publication of Fantastic Four #1 and the birth of the Marvel Universe with an oversized issue that sees John Romita, Jr., a fixture of Marvel Comics since the mid-1980s, return to the publisher. In addition to the lead story by fan-favorite writer Dan Slott, Fantastic Four #35 sees work from artist Paul Renaud and a new story from writer Mark Waid and artist Jason Loo that tells an untold tale of the Fantastic Four's origins.

Celebrating the past sixty years and setting the stage for the next sixty, Marvel Comics' Fantastic Four #35 is a birthday surprise no comics fan can miss this August!

MOORCOCK'S CULT FANTASY SAGA BROUGHT TO BREATHTAKING LIFE!

The gorgeous comic adaptation of MICHAEL MOORCOCK'S world-renowned cult fantasy saga returns in The Dreaming City #1. Elric of Melniboné is exiled from his home and cursed to walk the land under the influence of the god of chaos, Arioch.

Elric: The Dreaming City #1 arrives in stores August 14, 2021.

Cover A of this brand-new Elric adaptation will be drawn by Hellboy creator and lifelong Elric fan MIKE MIGNOLA.

We sat down with the legendary comic artist to discuss his love for the series.

COVER A BY HELLBOY CREATOR
MIKE MIGNOLA

MIKE MIGNOLA (HELLBOY CREATOR)

When did you first discover Michael Moorcock's writing?

Probably around 15. My first exposure was when Elric appeared in a couple issues of Marvel's Conan comic, co-plotted by Michael Moorcock. I seem to remember that it wasn't long after that that I stumbled over the Daw editions of Elric with covers by Michael Whelan—Then I was hooked. In the next years or so I read just about all the Eternal Champion stuff I could get my hands on.

You've done a lot of licensed art over the years as well as your own creator-driven work. Do you enjoy working with pre-existing characters? Is there a certain amount of "how far can I push this?"

Once I got used to doing my own work (Hellboy, etc), where I have complete control over what I do, I knew that my work-for-hire days were over. People I know would LOVE to see me do a Batman book again and that's just never going to happen—BUT it is fun every once and a while to do a cover or something, to do somebody else's character and see what they would look like translated into my style.

Why do you think Elric works so well as a comic book?

It's hard to beat Michael Moorcock for spectacular visuals.

What qualities did Elric have as a character that you felt you could draw on?

The suffering—The contrast between frailness and strength.

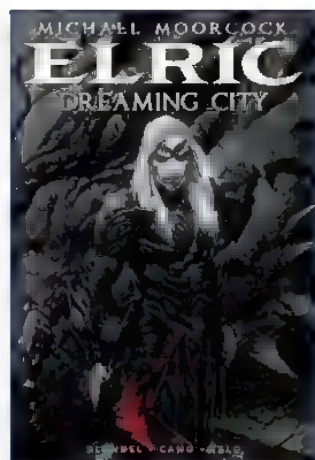

Is there anything you would change if drawing the character now? What would your approach be?

When I drew the CORUM comics for First Comics all those years ago I think I drew Elric once or twice, maybe just one cover or two, and back then I was trying to draw the Craig Russell version of the character so this time—This one drawing—I was finally trying to draw my own version of the character. It's hard to get out from under the shadow of other artists. I find it's especially difficult to get away from the Michael Whelan influence. But I tried. If I were to do anything different now I'd probably just make the sword bigger.

Was Elric influential on your work on Hellboy?

Yes—I didn't realize it for a long time but the whole Eternal Champion thing—the Doomed Hero—That was huge influence.

An eight-wheeled vehicle trundles across a barren landscape of ash and ruined buildings toward a lone bunker deep in the wilderness. Inside the vehicle are three passengers: two scientists—who plan to use the outpost as a home base for the study of world-ending phenomena—and a boy named Charlie.

As the work unfolds, the isolation and claustrophobia of the compound threatens each member of the expedition with madness. Forced to confront their own dark history and the struggles of the haves and have-nots, the members of the expedition find themselves hurtling toward ruin.

THRILLER, HORROR

America was built on a lie that's never quite come true. The cracks in that idealistic vision have inspired dangerous people to do horrible things in the name of an America that's never really existed. Hawk Harrison knows the genuine story of this country, and he's ready to give Cole Turner a history lesson.

Enigma is a visceral, post-modern tale of self-discovery and sexual identity told against the backdrop of outrageous superheroes and villains. Michael Smith lives a meaningless life. But when the weird characters from Enigma, his favorite childhood comic seem to come to life, Michael embarks upon an increasingly obsessive crusade to uncover the incredible secret behind their improbable existence . . . and ultimately, his own. Considered a classic and groundbreaking graphic novel for its LGBTQIA+ themes when first released—featuring the first gay superhero in mainstream comics.

- With a brand-new cover by Duncan Fegredo and a treasure trove of nearly 50 pages of extras including development art, color sketches, and behind-the-scenes notes into the making of this celebrated story.

"BEAUTIFUL. LITERARY. DECADES AHEAD OF ITS TIME. THIS IS THE GREATEST ADULT SUPERHERO COMIC OF THE NINETIES. AT LEAST."

What happens when our most precious belongings... no longer belong? When something we loved suddenly becomes junk, a powerful energy is unleashed. Before she forgets who she is, and to find out who she really wants to be, Florence must set off (with her trusty digital assistant Frank) on a long journey into the Wastelands to put to rest the monster she created.

- Ambitious debut from a tremendously talented young artist (under 30).

WRITER IAN EDGINTON (X-FORCE, BLADE) ROCKS OUT WITH KISS

Ian, off the bat can you share with fans your own history with KISS and their music? Are you a longtime fan or perhaps you dove deep into them later on in life? Do you have favorite albums or songs?

Yeah, it was 1977, in the UK and I was 14. I discovered KISS in issues #12 and 13 of Marvel's Howard the Duck! I didn't know who the hell they were, but loved the look. A friend of mine who knew his metal played me the Love Gun album and I was hooked, which is why Love Gun (song and album) has always been my favourite!

With the "Phantom" title, are you taking any inspiration from the (in)famous KISS Meets the Phantom of the Park film by chance?

Only very tangentially, there's a theme park, there are duplicates and a few other parallels but nothing overt. This series is its own thing!

This story tackles some classic sci-fi questions of humanity and identity by way of androids. What inspired you to bring that element in to your tale?

It started with the bands's make-up, their characters, and notions of identity. It's about masks, the faces we show to the world and who we really are. It sounds deep but it's mostly about robots, monsters and blowing sh*t up!

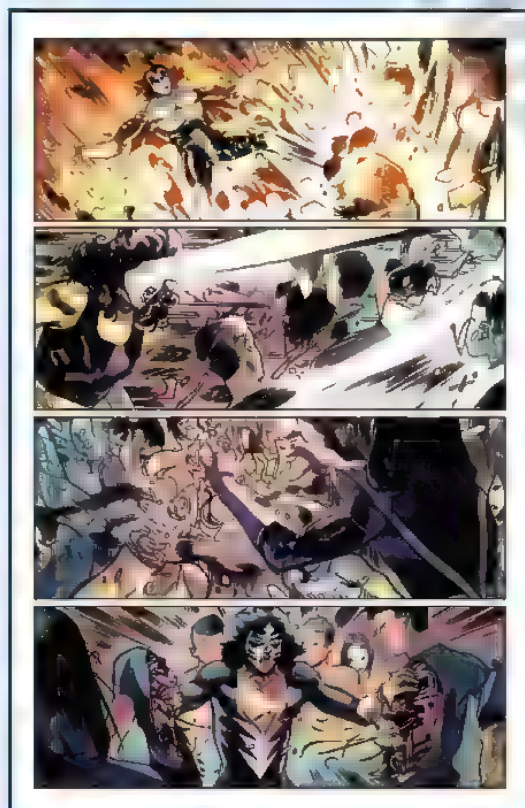

We hear the series will feature some set pieces inspired by major parts of popular Japanese culture like Godzilla and the manga work of Junji Ito. Can you speak to these influences and how we can expect to see them in the story?

I don't want to give too much away here but remember when I said, 'theme park' earlier!

How has it been working with artist Celor, seeing his pages coming in working from your scripts?

From what I've seen so far, it's looking good!

DO TWO GOTHIC
THRILLERS HAVE THE SPIRIT TO STOP THE APOCALYPSE?

SCRIBE DAVID AVALLONE DISHES ON TWO MACABRE LEGENDS

After a little detour with the Elvira: The Omega Ma'am Special, is it exciting to return to the Mistress of the Dark for another multi-part tale?

Absolutely. Specials are fun, but it's nice to have a bigger canvas to tell a longer and more complex story. And this one is kind of epic and nuts. In the best way.

We're really burying the lede here! The one and only Vincent Price is now going to be hanging with our favorite macabre maven. You have a background in film and we know you know your stuff, so what's it like bringing in this co-star to your tale?

Writing Vincent Price is a gift. On-screen and off, he's an indelible character and it's delightful to write in his "voice," just as it is to write in Elvira's. He's charming and elegant and hilarious... and as in real life, a perfect foil for Elvira. I recommend fans Googling their talk show appearances together.

Favorite Vincent Price films and roles? We promise ours is not Egghead from Batman ;)

Of course I was very familiar with Price's work, but I used this series as an excuse to rewatch a bunch of old favorites and dig deep into a few that I'd missed over the years. Even so, my favorite didn't change: Edward Lionheart, the revenge-obsessed actor who knocks off all his critics, in THEATER OF BLOOD. A close second is his heartbreaking turn as the Inventor in EDWARD SCISSORHANDS, which is a classic example of using all the iconic power of an actor's life and history to a small part, for maximum effect.

Though this series will be perfectly fine to dive right into - every comic is someone's first!, we're told chronologically this picks up after the previous Mistress of the Dark title and Shape of Elvira. Both available in trades, but can you catch us up with some of the basics?

There really isn't much backstory from previous series that comes into play: if you're familiar with Elvira and her character (from all other pop culture), you'll be able to follow easily. When the story picks up, she and her friend Eddie Mezzogiorno are pitching an Elvira series to a streaming company. She met Eddie when he was ghost-writing for a Del Toro-like director in SHAPE OF ELVIRA, and they have a long-running flirtation, but I'm sure readers can pick that up as they go. But all that said... you should TOTALLY read every damn issue of Elvira I've written because it's very entertaining stuff.

We've heard this series is going to be spoofing modern cinema as we know it, with parodies of today's culture of streaming and binge watching. What makes Elvira such a great match to poke fun at so many parts of our society?

Elvira has a perfect "voice" for satire: she's an outsider to puritanical "polite society" in many ways, but she's ultimately a good-hearted person and she can stand in for the audience in calling out nonsense when she sees it.

In this series we're welcoming new interior artist Juan Samu. However, on the cover front longtime Elvira fans will be happy to see Dave Acosta as well as John Royle. How has it been seeing some of the artwork rolling in and reuniting with this horrific cast of characters?

Juan's stuff is looking great: he has a terrific handle on the likenesses and his storytelling is meshing well with mine. I can't wait to see the final issues!

REPRESENTATION MATTERS.

Every June, the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual communities recognize Pride Month in memory of the victims of the Stonewall riots, which occurred at the end of June 1969. This annual celebration hails LGBTQ+ civil rights victories, commemorates sacrifices made by LGBTQ+ members and their allies, and acknowledges the distances yet ahead for global equality for all persons under law. Retailers and readers of all stripes may recognize Pride Month for the proliferation of Pride parades across the globe, which invite all attendees to come as they are and to feel a joyful sense of belonging.

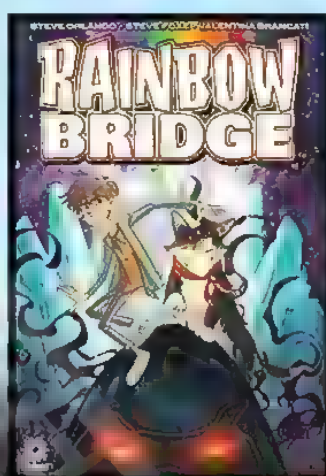

It is in this same spirit of welcoming togetherness that PREVIEWS is proud to highlight a wide array of comics stories both about and from our siblings in the LGBTQ+ communities, available now for June delivery.

"Maria Llovet's artwork is what makes the book a must-read." — COMICSBULLETIN

"Llovet's artwork is stunning throughout" — COMICBOOK.COM

Beryl's life in the desert, living with her aunt and her cat, is relatively simple...until the day she finds and enters the Dollhouse.

PORCELAIN is a labyrinth of a psychologically thrilling experience told in a way that only acclaimed creator Maria Llovet (Faithless, Heartbeat, Loud, Eros/Psyche) can tell it.

A MAN'S SKIN HC

HARDCOVER | 160 PAGES | COLOR

ARTIST: ZANZIM

Award winning fairy tale about love!

Once upon a time in Renaissance Italy, Bianca, a young lady from a good family, is of marriage age. Her parents find her a fiancé to their liking: Giovanni, a rich merchant, young and pleasant. The wedding looks set to go smoothly even though Bianca can't hide her disappointment at having to marry a man she knows nothing about.

But before the marriage, she learns the secret held and bequeathed by the women of her family for generations: a "man's skin". By donning it, Bianca becomes "Lorenzo" and enjoys all the attributes of a young man of stunning beauty. She can now visit the world of men incognito and get to know her fiancé in his natural environment. In her male skin, Bianca frees herself from the limits imposed on women.

The morals of the Renaissance then act as a mirror to our present time and poses several questions: why should women be treated differently from men? Why should their freedom be the object of contempt and coercion?

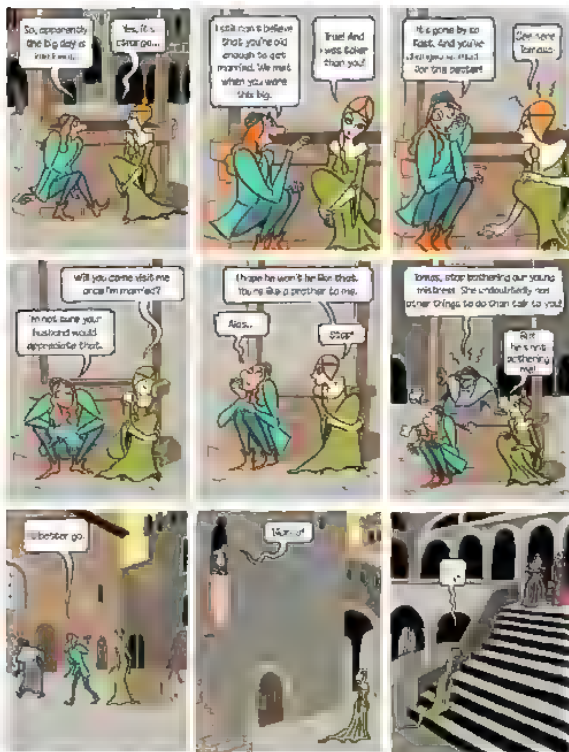

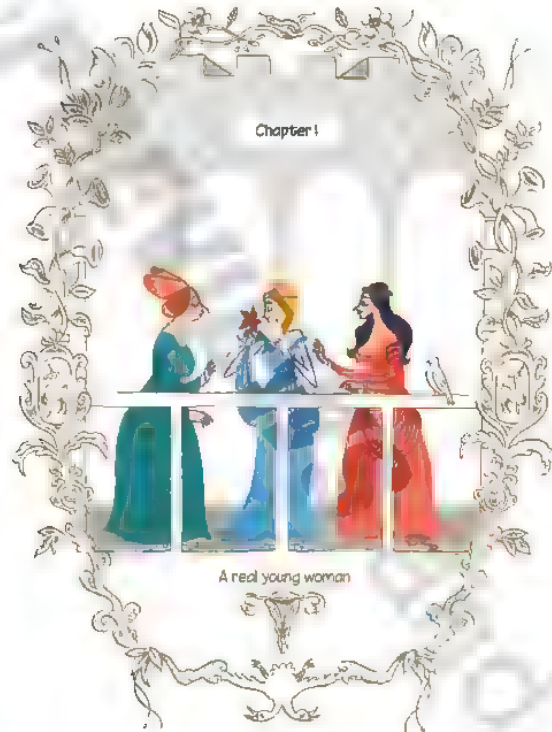

Tackling universal themes through a captivating and subtle fairy tale, Hubert and Zanzim brilliantly question our relationship to gender and sexuality...but not only that. By mixing morality and humor, A Man's Skin invites us to the mad and noble quest for love. This international bestselling title has already been highly awarded:

You thought we were kidding about "Infinite Quarantine" when we ran these strips online last spring. We're betting Crisis on Infinite Quarantine will be as timely at the end of summer 2021 as it was in the spring of 2020 as the Earth continues to play planet-wide whack-a-mole™ with a microscopic basketball with knobby little things sticking out of it. RUN BOOK 1 GN

To John Lewis, the civil rights movement came to an end with the signing of the Voting Rights Act in 1965. But that was after more than five years as one of the preeminent figures of the movement, leading sit-in protests and fighting segregation on interstate busways as an original Freedom Rider. It was after becoming chairman of SNCC (the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee) and being the youngest speaker at the March on Washington. It was after helping organize the Mississippi Freedom Summer and the ensuing delegate challenge at the 1964 Democratic National Convention. And after coleading the march from Selma to Montgomery on what became known as "Bloody Sunday." All too often, the depiction of history ends with a great victory. But John Lewis knew that victories are just the beginning. In Run Book One, John Lewis and longtime collaborator Andrew Aydin reteam with Nate Powell—the award-winning illustrator of the March trilogy—and are joined by L. Fury—making an astonishing graphic novel debut—to tell this often overlooked chapter of civil rights history. (STL093017) (C: 0-1-0)

CEREBUS VOLUME 5: JAKA'S STORY TP (REMASTERED EDITION)

(W/A/CA) Dave Sim

Jaka's Story, the fifth volume of the Cerebus series, represents a point of departure for the series, focusing as it does on a small cast of characters, living out their lives in orbital, Thoreau-like "quiet desperation", drawn ever inward, until at last, they inevitably collide. This new edition, painstakingly restored and printed on acid-free paper with a durable sewn binding, reveals astounding detail never before present outside of the original art itself. (STL119239)

Sonny Campisi is a small-time fixer for the mob-controlled neighborhood of Green Village. If you don't pay your gambling debt, he'll come and collect. But when a dragon flies into town and Sonny is the one who's tasked with getting rid of it, it's a problem unlike any he's ever faced. A chain of events begins that will affect everyone who lives in the neighborhood. Especially Sonny.

A new comic by James Patrick, the writer of KAIJU SCORE, and breakout artist Marco Locati, CAMPISI: THE DRAGON INCIDENT is a genre-mashing comedy-thriller that plays like one part Get Shorty, one-part Dragonslayer, and all parts absurdly wonderful!

A 19th Century gothic horror of exorcism, demonic worship and epilepsy.

When Aubrey has his first seizure, he's pulled out of school and hidden away in the family's remote country estate. His father — a high-ranking English priest — tries to chase the "devil" out of Aubrey — but maybe the devil lurks in the grotesque pagan effigy that dwells on the grounds. And maybe the devil will turn out to be Aubrey's only ally...

A singular tale of nightmarish terror and creeping enlightenment told against a backdrop of ignorance and brutality, GOD OF TREMORS springs from the fertile imagination of award-winning writer Peter Milligan (OUT OF BODY, Shade the Changing Man, X-Force) with illustrations from Piotr Kowalski (JOIN THE FUTURE, Sex).

What is

SEISMIC PRESS?

AfterShock's new Young Adult imprint looks to shake up comics' fastest growing category of graphic novels.

Launching in August 2021 with Steve Orlando and Steve Foxe's RAINBOW BRIDGE, a 120-page Original Graphic Novel illustrated by Valentina Brancati, SEISMIC PRESS responds to two significant trends:

- More and more creators from across the comics community coming to AfterShock to pitch fantastic ideas and story concepts meant for readers in the 12-18 age range
- Increasing numbers of educators, librarians and retailers focused more keenly than ever on this market reaching out to us to express their needs for graphic novels that address this growing audience of readers

AfterShock Editor-in-Chief Mike Marts, in conversation with Publishers Weekly, explains: "With Seismic Press our mission is to apply the same high-quality approach in content, talent selection and presentation that we have with AfterShock...but extend it to a much wider audience and demographic."

Additional titles under the SEISMIC PRESS imprint will begin rolling out in January 2022, including original works by How To Train Your Dragon's Richard Ashley Hamilton and Ted Anderson (ORPHAN AGE). Plans for the line also include repackaging of AfterShock series that have already demonstrated strong YA appeal, including THE LOLLIPOP KIDS, written by Adam Glass and Aidan Glass with illustrations by Diego Yapur, and OBERON, written by Ryan Parrott and drawn by Milos Slavkovic.

The SEISMIC PRESS imprint and titles will be supported by a dedicated and distinct marketing campaign including advertising, promotion, social engagement and retailer support through AfterShock's ambassador program.

In the year 2056, robots have replaced human beings in the workforce. Every human family is assigned a robot upon whom they are completely reliant for money. What could possibly go wrong? Meet the Walters, a human family whose robot, Razorball, ominously spends his free time in the garage working on machines which they're pretty sure are designed to kill them in this sci-fi satire from Mark Russell (The Flintstones, Second Coming) and Mike Deodato Jr. (The Amazing Spider-Man, The Resistance).

But her larcenous trail from the Big Bang to the Ninety-fifth Reich has drawn the beady eye of the Temporal PD, whose number one Deputy Marshall is now hard on our heroine's tail-- and taking things extremely personally. Worse still, Marj's worthless creep of an ex and his even scummier partner have seen an angle of their own in all this, and now intend to use her time-tech to change history for their own benefit. Marj's only ally? A guy called Tim. And he's just a head. I mean come on, what use is just a head...?

These women changed art forever. Told in colorful graphic novel form, this is the story of four pioneers of feminist art: Judy Chicago, Faith Ringgold, Ana Mendieta, and the Guerilla Girls. Each made their mark in their own powerful way. Judy Chicago made us reassess the female body, Faith Ringgold taught us that feminism is for everyone, Ana Mendieta was a martyr to violence against women, while the Guerilla Girls have taken the fight to the male-dominated museum. While most Americans were watching Leave it to Beaver and listening to The Everly Brothers, an eclectic group of CIA operatives were spiking each other's coffees with LSD, throwing decadent parties and hiring prostitutes to slip unsuspecting johns drug-laced drinks in order to observe every stoned and kinky moment from behind two-way mirrors.

And this was only when they weren't dreaming up the next far reaching "official" application for this new, all-powerful, mind blowing drug—a drug that would ironically fuel the counter-culture over a decade later. Coincidence? Maybe not.

ANIMALS WITH SHARPIES HC

(W/A/CA) Michael Dumontier, Neil Farber

Animals With Sharpies is a collection of paintings with hand-lettered texts. In each painting, Michael Dumontier and Neil Farber have depicted an animal holding a sharpie, ostensibly writing a message. These messages are varied in nature: they are political and religious tracts, confessions, recipes, arithmetic problems and more. Above all, these paintings are funny, but they are also startlingly poignant and jarring for the humanness of the suffering and longing depicted in these animals' simple words. (STK610601)

Big Kids follows a troubled teenage boy through the transformative years of high school, as he redefines his friends, his interests, and his life path. She's a college student: mysterious and cool, she quickly takes a shine to the boy. Ferie and perfectly paced, Michael DeForge's Big Kids muses on the complicated, and often contradictory, feelings people struggle with in adolescence, the choices we make to fit in, and the ways we survive times of change. (W/A/CA) Michael Dumontier, Neil Farber

Constructive Abandonment is a series of small paintings featuring surreal vignettes with animals and children weighed down by the pressures of life. With absurdly comedic interactions, the text varies from straightforward to even more abstract and nonsensical than the images that it accompanies. The paintings reference child's play or literature and others are seemingly without reference, completely untethered. Pages that could be forgettable one-liners become investigations into intellect and our ability to draw correlations between contradictory elements in a single image. (STK438974)

CONTRADICTIONS GN

(W/A/CA) Sophie Yanow

Sophie's young and queer and into feminist theory. She decides to study abroad, choosing Paris for no firm reason beyond liking French comics. Feeling a bit lonely and out of place, she's desperate for community and a sense of belonging. An anarchist student-activist committed to veganism and shoplifting, Zena offers Sophie a whole new political ideology that feels electric. Enamored — of Zena, of the idea of living more righteously — Sophie finds herself swept up in a whirlwind friendship that blows her even farther from her rural Californian roots as they embark on a disastrous hitchhiking trip to Amsterdam and Berlin full of couch surfing, drug tripping, and radical book fairs. ON LOVING WOMEN GN

(W/A/CA) Diane Obomsawin

On Loving Women is an all-new collection of stories by Diane Obomsawin about coming out, first love, and sexual identity. With this work, Obomsawin brings her gaze to bear on subjects closer to home — her friends and lovers' personal accounts of first realizing they're gay or first finding love with another woman. Her stripped-down pages use the bare minimum of linework to expressively reveal heartbreak, joy, irritation, and fear. Within these pages, Obomsawin has forged a poignant, powerful narrative that speaks to the difficulties of coming out and the joys of being loved. (STK627925)

GRASS GN

(W/A/CA) Keum Suk Gendry-Kim

Grass is a powerful anti-war graphic novel, offering up firsthand the life story of a Korean girl named Okseon Lee who was forced into sexual slavery for the Japanese Imperial Army during World War II, a disputed chapter in 20th century Asian history. Keum Suk Gendry-Kim emphasizes Lee's strength in overcoming the many forms of adversity she experienced. Grass is a landmark graphic novel that makes personal the desperate cost of war and the importance of peace. SUPERMUTANT MAGIC ACADEMY GN

(W/A/CA) Jillian Tamaki

Jillian Tamaki is best known for co-creating the award-winning young adult graphic novels Skim and This One Summer, moody and atmospheric bestsellers. SuperMutant Magic Academy, which Jillian has been serializing online for the past four years, deftly plays superhero and high school Hollywood tropes against what adolescence is really like: the SuperMutant Magic Academy is a prep-school for mutants and witches but their paranormal abilities take a back seat to everyday teen concerns. MOOMIN BUILDS A HOUSE GN

(W/A/CA) Tove Jansson

Another classic Moomin story reworked in full color, with a kid-proof but kid-friendly size, price, and format. After Mymble's family comes to visit the Moomins, her littlest and most badly behaved sister, Little My, is left behind. She promises to behave if she is given

Moomin's bedroom; Moomin, tired of being forced out of his room, decides to build a house where all the rooms will belong to him. With Little My helping out, things are sure to go awry, but in the end, Moomin's house-building misadventures teach him the value of a home. (STK522716)

THIS WOMAN'S WORK GN

(W/A/CA) Julie Delporte

This Woman's Work is a powerfully raw autobiographical work that asks vital questions about femininity and the assumptions we make about gender. Julie Delporte examines cultural artifacts and sometimes traumatic memories through the lens of the woman she is today—a feminist who understands the reality of the women around her, how experiencing rape culture and sexual abuse is almost synonymous with being a woman, and the struggle of reconciling one's feminist beliefs with the desire to be loved. CRISIS ZONE

By Simon Hanselmann

$29.99 / SC / 292 pgs / FC / 8.5" x 11"

In March 2020, as the planet began to enter lockdown, acclaimed cartoonist Simon Hanselmann set out to make the greatest webcomic ever created! As the Covid-19 pandemic continued to escalate, Crisis Zone escalated right alongside it with daily posts on Instagram. Crisis Zone is presented here, unabridged and uncensored, with a slew of added pages and scenes deleted from the webcomic, as well as an extensive "Director's Commentary" from Hanselmann himself. Bouncing rapidly between comedy, horror, action, and relational soap-operatics, Crisis Zone refuses to take the pedal off the gas as we all hurtle towards unknown destinations.

SPOTLIGHT ON

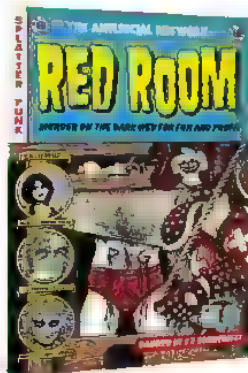

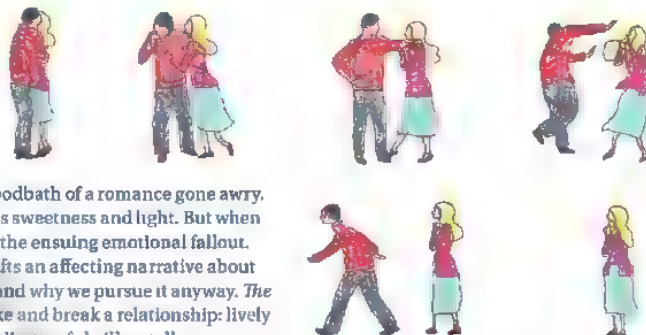

THE BUTCHERY

By Bastien Vivès

$19.99 / HC / 92 pgs / FC / 7.5" x 11"

This poetic graphic novel explores the emotional bloodbath of a romance gone awry. A young man and woman fall for each other and all is sweetness and light. But when their relationship crumbles, they each must endure the ensuing emotional fallout. Starting from this simple premise, Bastien Vivès crafts an affecting narrative about the mercurial and tempestuous nature of romance and why we pursue it anyway. The Butchery is composed of the little moments that make and break a relationship: lively dancing, silent strolls hand in hand, stilted phone calls, tearful pillow talk.

Another stand-alone masterpiece from creator of X-Men, Grand Design and Hip Hop Family Tree! As seen on Cartoonist Kayfabe (YouTube)!

Written by Nurit Zarchi,
Illustrated by Anat
Warshavsky

$14.99 / HC / 36 pgs / FC /

Set in the icy reaches of the South Pole, this charming children's story follows three penguin brothers. They love cooking so much that one day they start a cozy café where they plan to serve a delicious, cinnamon stew. Kipnis, Illustrated by Noam Weiner

As all kids know, waking up in the morning is hard!

So here are three children's stories that speak to the plight of the night owl. In the first story, Jake is snoozing so soundly that the whole neighborhood must wake him up. In the second, "Sleepyhead" wakes up late and her whole family races to get her ready for school. In the third, three lazy brothers strive to be the laziest one of all. Levin Kipnis' amusing rhymes are perfectly paired with Noam Weiner's hilariously expressive illustrations.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE FALLEN TOWERS HC

(W/A/CA) Don Brown

The consequences of the 2001 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York City, both political and personal, were vast, and continue to reverberate today. Don Brown brings his journalistic eye and attention to moving individual stories to help teens contextualize what they already know about the day, as well as broaden their understanding of the chain of events that occurred in the attack's wake. Profound, troubling, and deeply moving, In the Shadow of the Fallen Towers bears witness to our history—and the ways it shapes our future. (STL193108) (C: 0-1-0) HC, 7x10, 128pgs, FC.....$19.99

WEIRD #1 FACSIMILE EDITION

(W) Carl Burgos

Originally released 55 years ago in 1966, it was to be entitled "Eerie" but Warren jumped the gun by publishing Eerie #1 very quickly as an ashcan comic to secure the copyright. So the title of this comic magazine was changed at the last minute to Weird and they used Eerie Publications for their company name. Although the cover of this first issue is tame, Weird went on to publish the most bizarre, hideously violent, and gory covers ever seen in comics. The first issue is a hard to obtain, high priced collectors item usually found in terrible condition due to the exceedingly cheap paper it was printed on. This facsimile faithfully reproduces the entire first issue on much better paper stock that will last!! (STL193164) (C: 0-1-0) MATURE THEMES

THE CALL OF CTHULHU: A MYSTERY IN 3 PARTS ILLUSTRATED SC

(W) H. P. Lovecraft (A) Gary Gianni
Written in 1928, H.P. Lovecraft's The Call of Cthulhu defined the ancient gods as dark creatures who came from the stars and ruled the world before mankind. When these ancient ones awaken, humanity is plagued by a nightmare of terrors etched upon an epic backdrop. The author's concept deeply redefined the horror story with this thrilling, dense mystery that spawned a virtual genre. The artist Gary Gianni and designer Marcelo Anciano both felt that Lovecraft's short story presented an opportunity to visually expand the Cthulhu Mythos and push the boundaries of illustrated books. The Call of Cthulhu, as illustrated by Gary Gianni, is a fusion

NAUGHTY & NICE: THE GOOD GIRL ART BRUCE TIMM SC (REVISED EDITION)

(W/A/CA) Bruce Timm
Naughty and Nice presents an extensive survey of Bruce Timm's celebrated "after hours" private works. These tastefully drawn nudes, completed purely for fun, are showcased in this exquisite new release. Over 125 new images were prepared especially for the first edition in the early 2010s, with an additional 125 images pulled from the studio archives that had been completed throughout the 2000s. Timm explores the female form with absolute freedom, and a pure personal expression is the result. Timm blends his animation style with his passion for traditional good-girl art for an approach that is unmistakably all his own. Note: This edition does not include the superhero art that appeared in the first printing of the book, published in 2012. (STLI92303) (C: 0-1-0)

ACTION ADVENTURE | SQ-M

Acclaimed artist Darick Robertson (The Boys, Transmetropolitan, Happy!) joins writers Eric Peterson and Joe Aubrey to bring you the tale of the galaxy's most dangerous employers: The IPS!

In the future, unemployment and job dissatisfaction are sky-high. When you've got nothing left to lose, you join the Intergalactic Postal Service. Its postage fees are steep—and they go only to whomever ultimately fulfills the delivery, making every run a comically violent free-for-all between the most ruthless mercenaries in the cosmos!

The interplanetary ensemble cast of Space Bastards, under the volatile leadership of Postmaster General Roy Sharpton, is constantly at each other's throats trying to settle scores and earn big money. But when a rival corporation's teleportation technology threatens to make their role in the galaxy obsolete, the Bastards must work together to preserve a job they've come to love.

"Space Bastards is one of those comics I love because it's clear from the first page that everyone involved just turned the volume up to 11 right at the start and never once turned it down."

MEMOIR

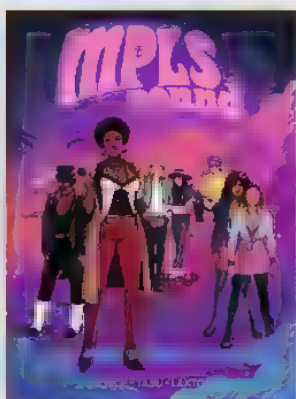

A moving autobiographical portrayal of psychosis and mental illness as shown through the experiences and writings of writer-poet Jacques Mathis.

Jacques Mathis tells his own story, of a megalomaniacal man stuck in a body too small for his ideas. His childhood, spent in a dreary little town in Lorraine, France, came to a brutal end at the age of fourteen after he suffered his first episode of psychosis. After that, between repeated visits to psychiatric wards, Mathis has had to find some way to carve out as much of a normal life as possible.

With Psychotic, as adapted by the acclaimed graphic novelist Sylvain Dorange, Jacques Mathis gives a candid, inspirational account of his daily life, beginning with the day his disorder was first discovered and covering his many stays in psychiatric hospitals, his sessions with various doctors, his setbacks, and his triumphs.

It's their senior year of high school, and three friends are prepping for the biggest event of the year—the anime convention that hits just after their graduation. Even though they've been friends through their anime fandom for years, Maya, James, and Danielle are feeling a shift. Reality isn't constant like the cartoon stories they bonded over. People grow up and sometimes apart, as the friends discover in a turbulent year filled with big plans, adolescent antics, devastating disappointments, and the poignant vulnerability of pursuing one's dreams.

A NOTE FROM THE CREATOR

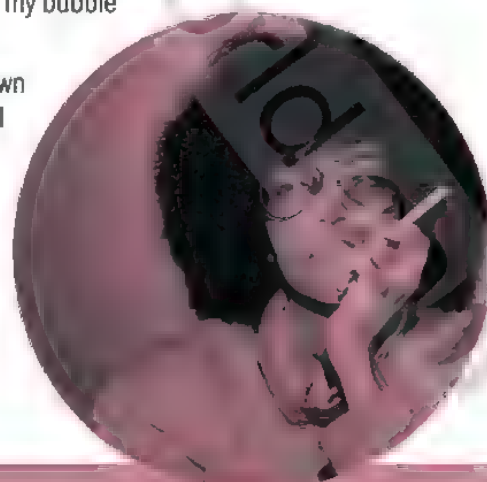

Sitting between the bookshelves wearing a hat topped off with a pair of cat ears and reading the newest volume of their favorite Japanese comic—something about colorful samurai—while decked out in apparel to match. Weeaboo. A group of cosplayers doing a coordinated dance to a candy pop song. Weebs. "I love anime! And manga! And gaming!" Myself, once before and now again.

Weeaboo is a word that was birthed from the chaotic, primordial soup of the Internet—its intent comes from the use of the speaker. It can be used derogatorily, denoting the cringe-inducing behavior of someone a bit too ignorant in their obsession with all things Japanese. It can be used comradely from the person right next to you also buying that anime figurine. Words and intent are flexible like that, like people. In a younger, more self-conscious place in my life, I was also worried about being seen as a "weeaboo," among other things. Then I came across images of people at an anime convention wearing elaborate costumes of their favorite characters and openly celebrating the art that they love. For a day, I could be someone wholly different and make connections out of just a shared interest in a cartoon. I came out of my bubble and have been hooked ever since.

Maya, Dan, and James all come from a deep part of me and the friends I've grown with. I've met so many wildly different people over the years through cosplay and have seen so many break out of their shells through this act of expression—learning to craft not only your exterior but your interior as well. People can evolve through the clash they have with the wills of others, interweaving themselves and together coming out as something new.

There's a point when you go from being called a weeaboo to telling people you're a weeaboo; this is that story.

Rockwell Granger put his misspent life on the line in pursuit of cooking for a living...and it's not going well. In debt to the notorious Bardem Brothers, who control the Portland food cart scene with an iron fist, he is forced to track down a rogue food truck invading their turf. Meanwhile, Rock's taco truck has been invaded by his newest (and only) employee, Harper Marbury, who's thrown into the chaotic food cart underground, helping Rockwell on his morally gray mission for the Bardems. With two jobs on their plate, Rock and Harper will have to navigate a world of food pirates, evil hippies, and irate foodies, before Rock gets 86'd forever.

TWO-WEEK WAIT: AN I.V.F. STORY GN

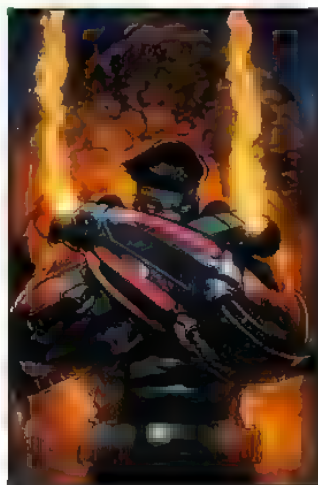

An original graphic novel based on the IVF stories of its husband-and-wife authors and the 1-in-50 couples around the world like them. Conrad and Joanne met in their final year of university and have been virtually inseparable since then. For a while, it felt like they had all the time in the world. Yet now, when they are finally ready to have kids, they find that getting pregnant isn't always so easy. Ahead of them lies a difficult, expensive, and emotional journey into the world of assisted fertility, where each "successful" implantation is followed by a two-week wait to see if the pregnancy takes. Join Joanne and Conrad, their friends, their family, their coworkers in an unflinching portrayal of the hope and heartbreak offered to so many by modern medicine. (STL191629) (C: 1-1-0)

SELFMADEHEROTHE DANCING PLAGUE GN

(W/A/CA) Gareth Brookes

Set in 1518, and told from the imagined perspective of Mary, one of the witnesses, The Dancing Plague tells the true story of when hundreds of Strasbourg's inhabitants were suddenly seized by the strange and unstoppable compulsion to dance. Prone to mystic visions as a child, betrayed in the convent to which she flees, then abused by her loudish husband, Mary endures her life as an oppressed and ultimately scapegoated woman with courage, strength, and inspiring beauty. The story of the "Dancing Plague" finds suitably extraordinary expression in the utterly unique mixed-media style Gareth Brookes has devised to tell it. SILENCE, FULL STOP: A MEMOIR SC

(W/A) Karina Shor

A breathtaking and gut-wrenchingly real graphic memoir of the struggles of an adolescent girl processing the trauma of childhood sexual assault. An immigrant at the age of six, she arrived in a strange new world. Karina was labeled "different" immediately, and a desire to be invisible was born. The "different" label expanded to "weird" and "freak," terms that she fervently embraced. By taking society's critique, owning it, and taking pride in it, she gained power over it. In a life overshadowed by fear, she wanted control. If something was going to ruin her life it would be her and her alone (STL191625) (C: 0-1-0)

LIU CIXIN VOLUME 3: THE VILLAGE TEACHER GN

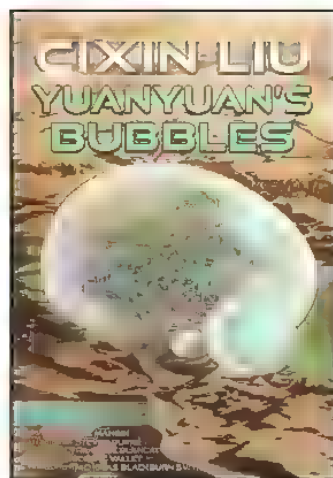

(W) Liu Cixin (A) Zhang Xiaoyu

In the depths of mountains shrouded with ignorance and superstition, a man dedicates his life to igniting a passion for science and culture in children's hearts. As his life draws to an end, he uses his dying breaths to impart knowledge on others. Fifty thousand light-years away, an interstellar war that has lasted for twenty thousand years draws to an end. In order to preserve the Milky Way's many civilizations, the victor begins to exterminate lower-level life forms. When they reach Earth, they pose a test. The eighteen children deep in the mountains use the last lesson their teacher taught them to shine bright the hope of civilization. (STL178515) (C: 0-1-0)

(W) Liu Cixin, Valérie Mangin

(A) Steven Dupre (CA) Nicolas Vallet Ever since she was a child, Yuanyuan always dreamed of blowing big bubbles. But her father worries about her fascination; he wants Yuanyuan to be as responsible and devoted to a calling as her mother was. As an adult, Yuanyuan creates a multimillion-dollar business out of the technology she developed for her doctoral thesis. But she still dreams of blowing the biggest bubble she can. When his daughter uses her high-tech methods to blow a bubble big enough to envelop a city, Yuanyuan's father thinks back to the dreams he and Yuanyuan's mother chased when they were young. Will her father's dreams come back to life? (STL190775) (C: 0-1-1)

AL PLASTINO:
THE LAST SUPERMAN
STANDING SC

(W) Eddie Zeno

Al Plastino was one of the last surviving penciler/inkers of the Golden Age. Laboring uncredited on Superman for two decades (1948-1968), he co-created Supergirl, Brainiac, and the Legion of Super-Heroes, drawing those characters' first appearances, and illustrating the initial comics story to feature Kryptonite. With a foreword by Paul Levitz, this book was completed just weeks before Al's recent passing. In these pages, the artist remembers both his struggles and triumphs in the world of comics, cartooning and beyond, painting a layered portrait of Plastino's life and career.

And a wealth of illustrations show just how influential a figure he is in the history of comics. (STK697938)

WETA'S JUSTICE LEAGUE STATUE SEES SUPERMAN RISE FROM THE DEAD

Visionary director Zack Snyder returned to the world of DC Comics this spring with HBO Max's Zack Snyder's Justice League, a four-hour cut of the film that restored his original vision. One aspect of that vision was Superman, in a black suit, after his restoration to life. Working from the visual effects for the film, Weta Workshop has created the Zack Snyder's Justice League: Superman (Black Suit) 1/6-Scale Statue, a 25" tall piece that depicts the resurrected Superman rising from the ground and includes LED lights to illuminate his eyes. A high-end piece for the serious collector, this will be the crowning addition to a collection!

WIZKIDS/NECA

BELQUEST BOARD GAME

From Wizkids/NECA. Bequest is a super-genius mix of drafting, set collection, and I Cut-You Choose mechanics, requiring players to use every ounce of their wits to outmaneuver their opponents, and come away with the largest share of Dr. Schism's estate!

Each round, every player gets a hand of five cards that they'll need to split with their neighbor, representing some of Dr. Schism's assets. You'll decide how to split the 5 cards, but split them wisely, as your neighbor will choose who gets which pile! As you wait for them to decide, you have your own choice to make between the card piles split by your other neighbor. It seems obvious which pile they want you to pick—should you pick the other one? Or maybe that's what the dastardly villain wanted all along!

Each Asset type has a unique way of scoring points, adding new wrinkles as you collect. There are also Keys, which don't give you anything on their own, but let you draft one of Dr. Schism's powerful Special Assets. These include connections to his Lackeys, who can help you with powerful one-time effects, or blueprints for his ingenious Schemes, giving you new ways to score! But watch out—if you're only paying attention to your neighbors, one of the villains across the table might beat you to the Special Asset you need!

Bequest features phenomenal illustrations from Fiona Yap, of Dr. Schism's estate and assets, as well as a colorful cast of Villains vying to take their place as his heir. Will you be the next great Supervillain?
